

NOVEMBER 2, 2016 COUNTRY UPDATES

JAPAN

Our program with Japanese business group went very well and represents a new level of business contacts between our cities. We are also hosting a new delegation this week of Hitachi doctors who will be studying and working at UAB. The Kita planning committee had good meetings with Toru and these meetings also helped to progress our UAB-Ibaraki Christian program and a Boy Scout exchange.

UKRAINE

We will host at least one new Open World delegation in 2017. Also our humanitarian program sent its' 6th shipment which represents about 2 tons of supplies sent for war relief.

Dear Scotty and Vlad, I hope this e-mail finds you well. Today we received boxes from Meest-Express with teh next delivery of humanitarian aid from Birmingham. Many thanks to you from all of us! I send you pictures later or put them on facebook.

Concerning our container in Odessa, it is a final stage already, we are waiting for one more payment from our side to be done and then immediately bring it to Vinnytsia. I'll keep you informed when it is already done.

Many thanks and regards from all your friends in Vinnytsia!

Best wishes,

Natalie

CZECH

The Beer exchange is progressing and we have the below invitation.

Hey Scotty,

Heather and I met last week with the Brewers guild and the owner of the J Clyde to catch up on her trip, and she had also met with the Brewers around town to share some of the beers she brought back. She brought up a couple of new ideas during our meeting. She was thinking we could pair each on of the breweries up here with a different one from Pilsen, and let each Brewery treat come up with their own interpretation of a collaboration beer. We could end up with several different customized styles of beer as a result. This would also alleviate some potential distribution headaches here, as each Birmingham Brewery can go through their own contracted distributor. We're planning to set up another meeting to try to get as many of the breweries in attendance as possible to talk through those possibilities. Would you have any upcoming availability either on a week night or weekend to attend a meeting?

I'm going to go ahead and extend an invitation for Purkmistr to visit us next summer during our Brewfest and give them a tentative date.

Invitation from Plzen

ANNOUNCEMENT

Dear Ladies and Gentlemen!

The Association for the Maintenance of War Memorials and Sites (hereinafter referred to as HáEmGo) and 16 member organizations, coordinated by the Krajczáros Foundation are organizing an International Candle Lightening Action on 11 November 2016.

We kindly invite you

the wartime soldiers' relatives, public life representatives, artists, scientists, adults, children, so as schools, municipalities, churches, the representatives of Hungarian and foreign civil organizations, the commandants of military and armed forces, diplomats, office and institution leaders, management and owners of companies, pensioners – in other words everybody - to join this commemoration.

We kindly ask everybody, who supports this initiative, to express their respect towards the soldiers who died for their country by lighting up a candle on 11 November at 11:11 am at their local memorial place, military cemetery, home, school.

In the framework of "Remember Together in the Common Europe" our aim is to remind today's generation that keeping alive the memory of the great and great-great-grandfathers - who died at the battlefields - is essential to ensure that their names live further on therefore making them immortal.

Dear Reminiscent! We believe that it is important to inform about this initiative as many people as possible and not only our narrow communities. Therefore we kindly ask you to spread our aims and philosophy so as our invitation to the memorial act in your community as well. We also believe that the soldiers, their relatives and commanders will be the first to join this initiative and will help us to spread the announcement.

Heroes - including countless common soldiers - so will be immortal.

The main organizer of the program (also administers the HáEmGo) is the Krajczáros Foundation.

GHANA

Is working on finalizing a signing with Ashaiman and planning youth or adult trip for summer of 2017.

ISRAEL

Is recruiting athletes/participants for the 2017 Maccabi Games in Birmingham. The committee is also pursuing a unique opportunity to create a joint film school in Birmingham and with a potential second Israeli sister City. Attached info.

JORDAN

Working with Sen. Shelby's office on possible USAID and other contacts and possible youth exchange in the summer with Israel and Jordan for students from Phillips Academy

CHINA

The Bham to Beijing program was a success but they have spent all their funds for this year so continuing lessons and trips will be subject to the organizers ability to fundraise.

HUNGARY

Kali is working with Szeke. on participation with future music/culture festivals. Szeke. is also looking to recruit athletes for the Maccabii Games next summer...along with Ukraine and Czechs

ITALY

Donna is working on this possible connection. No Baloney...couldn't resist 😊

Keep your fingers crossed. I know someone who is good friends with the mayor of Bologna. I expressed our interest in a Sister City relationship, which will be communicated to the mayor, who is visiting the states over Thanksgiving. I'll keep you posted.
